APPENDIX E IN CAMERA MEETING

APPENDIX E

- Section 197(2) of the MGA authorizes a Council and its committees to close all or part of their meetings to the public if a matter to be discussed is within one of the exceptions to disclosure contained in Division 2 of Part 1 of the FOIP Act. One of the exceptions includes disclosures of personal information that would be an unreasonable invasion of a third party's personal privacy (section 17(1)).
- The information of an identifiable individual must be discussed in a closed meeting if the disclosure would be an unreasonable invasion of privacy to have the discussion with members of the public present.
- Any motion arising from those discussions must then be voted upon in public. Consistent with the principle of open government, a municipality should try to make public as much information as possible about the general nature of the matter considered without disclosing the personal information of the individual in question.
- On October 1, 1999, section 197(2) of the MGA was repealed, and replaced with the following, "Councils and Council committees may close all or part of their meetings to the public if a matter to be discussed is within one of the exceptions to disclosure in Division 2 of Part 1 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act." ,
- Councils and their committees can make a motion to go in camera when the substance of their deliberations relate to the matters covered by the exceptions to disclosure in the FOIP Act, sections 16 to 29. For example, a discussion regarding the employment of an individual should be held in camera to protect the privacy of that individual.
- There is no requirement to take notes or minutes during in camera sessions. If notes have been prepared, they may be requested as part of a FOIP request. The municipality has the discretion to refuse to disclose these notes under section 23 of the FOIP Act, local public body confidences.
- The Council minutes should show that a motion was made to go in camera and then another to return to the open meeting so that section 23 may be applied.
